

§ 522.41

(3) Institution's disciplinary system.

(b) Pretrial inmates and inmates in holdover status (en route to a different institution) are excluded from the provisions of this rule.

[46 FR 59507, Dec. 4, 1981, as amended at 56 FR 20512, May 3, 1991]

§ 522.41 Responsibility.

(a) The Warden shall assign to a staff member the responsibility to co-ordinate the institution's A&O Program.

(b) Staff involved in the lecture portion of the A&O Program shall develop an outline of the information they wish to include in their presentation.

(c) Staff shall develop written orientation materials to supplement lectures and discussions.

(d) A staff member involved in the A&O Program who believes that an inmate is experiencing significant emotional stress shall notify the A&O staff coordinator so that the inmate may be offered appropriate assistance.

[46 FR 59507, Dec. 4, 1981, as amended at 56 FR 20512, May 3, 1991]

§ 522.42 Guidelines for an admission and orientation program.

(a) Location. Each Warden shall determine the appropriate location for the institution's A&O Program.

(b) Quarters. Each Warden shall establish procedures for the assignment of living quarters.

(c) Activities. The A&O staff coordinator is to ensure that the A&O Program provides a full schedule of activities in which each newly committed inmate may participate. Scheduled activities shall include exposure to programs responsive to a specialized need of the inmate, as well as exposure to various work assignments, education programs, and physical and social activity.

(d) Telephone calls. Newly committed inmates shall ordinarily be permitted to complete at least two local or long distance phone calls during the admission process, in accordance with the provisions in part 540, subpart I of this chapter.

(e) Length of A&O Program. An inmate's involvement in the institution's A&O Program is based on the time necessary to accomplish the program's objectives.

28 CFR Ch. V (7-1-01 Edition)

(f) Documentation of A&O Program involvement. Staff shall prepare documentation that the inmate has received a copy of the institution's inmate handouts and has completed the institution's A&O Program. Staff shall have the inmate sign and date a copy of this document. The original of this document shall be placed in the inmate's central file.

SOURCE: 54 FR 32028, Aug. 3, 1989, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—Good Time

§ 523.1 Definitions.

(a) Statutory good time means a credit to a sentence as authorized by 18 U.S.C. 4161. The total amount of statutory good time which an inmate is entitled to have deducted on any given sentence, or aggregate of sentences, is calculated and credited in advance, when the sentence is computed.

(b) Extra good time means a credit to a sentence as authorized by 18 U.S.C. 4162 for performing exceptionally meritorious service or for performing duties of outstanding importance in an institution or for employment in a Federal Prison Industry or Camp. "Extra Good Time" thus includes Meritorious Good Time, Work/Study Release Good Time, Community Corrections Center Good Time, Industrial Good Time, Camp or Farm Good Time, and Lump Sum Awards. Extra good time and seniority are inseparable with the exception of lump sum awards for which no seniority is earned.

(c) Seniority refers to the time accrued in an extra good time earning status. Twelve months of "seniority" automatically cause the earning rate to increase from three days per month to five days per month and seniority is then vested.

(d) Earning status refers to the status of an inmate who is in an assignment or employment which accrues extra good time.

§ 523.2 Good time credit for violators.

(a) An inmate conditionally released from imprisonment either by parole or mandatory release can earn statutory good time, upon being returned to custody for violation of supervised release, based on the number of days remaining to be served on the sentence. The rate of statutory good time for the violator term is computed at the rate of the total sentence from which released.

(b) An inmate whose special parole term is revoked can earn statutory good time based on the number of days remaining to be served on the special parole violator term. The rate of statutory good time for the violator term is computed at the rate of the initial special parole term plus the total sentence that was served prior to the special parole term and to which the special parole term was attached.

(c) Once an inmate is conditionally released from imprisonment, either by parole, including special parole, or mandatory release, the good time earned (extra or statutory) during that period of imprisonment is of no further effect either to shorten the period of supervision or to shorten the period of imprisonment which the inmate may be required to serve for violation of parole or mandatory release.

Subpart B—Extra Good Time

§ 523.10 Purpose and scope.

(a) The Bureau of Prisons awards extra good time credit for performing exceptionally meritorious service, or for performing duties of outstanding importance or for employment in an industry or camp. An inmate may earn only one type of extra good time award at a time (e.g., an inmate earning industrial or camp good time is not eligible for meritorious good time), except that a lump sum award as provided in § 523.16 may be given in addition to another extra good time award. The Warden or the Discipline Hearing Officer may not forfeit or withhold extra good time. The Warden may disallow or terminate the awarding of any type of extra good time (except lump sum awards), but only in a nondisciplinary context and only upon recommendation of staff. The Discipline Hearing Officer may disallow or terminate the awarding of any type of extra good time (except lump sum awards), as a disciplinary sanction. Once an awarding of meritorious good time has been terminated, the Warden must approve a new staff recommendation in order for the award to recommence. A "disallowance" means that an inmate does not receive an extra good time award for only one calendar month. Unless other action is taken, the award resumes the following calendar month. A "disallowance" must be for the entire amount of extra good time for that calendar month. There may be no partial disallowance. A decision to disallow or terminate extra good time may not be suspended pending future consideration. A retroactive award of meritorious good time may not include a month in which extra good time has been disallowed or terminated.

(b) The provisions of this rule do not apply to inmates sentenced under the Sentencing Reform Act provisions of the Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984. This means that inmates sentenced under the Sentencing Reform Act provisions for offenses committed on or after November 1, 1987 are not eligible for either statutory or extra good
